I hope you're not sick of seeing questions about this but on the other hand I hope Upstate Law Group is real.....like not a Ponzi scheme or some other organization of like ilk. I'm REALLY wary since every time we talk about it, you ask them for info, they tell you something, you tell me and that's not what happens. Even though we were all just told payments would be on the 15th going forward, 4 of the 5 appeared in the checking account today. So what happened to #5 (for $750)? Like I said I really don't care what the payment date "range" is - whether it's around the 29th like it was in April, or around the 5th like it was in June but I DO care if they are consistently ALL there without having intervention from you guys & myself. And because it has been longer than a full month since the previous payments it seems quite likely that they actually have all 5 of them for May. If you all are wondering about this like I am, perhaps we ought to consider how to get out of it sooner rather than later! Sorry to be a pain but in my experience when things go wrong in the early stages they never seem to get better -- a job that starts in the toilet seems to stay there. Please let me know what their explanation is this time and also maybe nose around in your circles and see what other people think of these guys.

Thanks!

John
